Always Think Of You-Billy Walker
Author:Kurt Baumann, Ray Pulley, Billy Walker

```
C             E7         F            C
The breeze of summer the stars in the blue
G7                           C
Will always make me think of you
         E7          F              C
A bed of roses with pearls made of dew
     G7                      C
Will always make me think of you

     F                   C
Your love will guide me forever
    D7                     G7
For all my world is loving you
C                      E7     F       C
Though summer will be autumn nevertheless
   G7                           C
My heart will always think of you

                  E7      F           C
The thrill of an evening when day is through
G7                           C
Will always make me think of you
          E7         F             C
The moons reflection upon an ocean blue
     G7                      C
Will always make me think of you
