Annie Over-Hank Thompson
Author:Billy Gray, Hank Thompson, Don Clay

```
G                          D7
Annie Over here comes my heart
                                        G
Do you recall you let it fall the time before
                           D7
Annie Over here comes my heart
                                                 G
I'll try again maybe I'll win your love once more

C                                                  G
I just threw my heart to you with so much love inside
A7                                       D7
Won't you play the game with me don't run away and hide
G                          D7
Annie Over here comes my heart
                                                 G
Is this the end our love depends on what you decide

                           D7
Annie Over here comes my heart
                                        G
Do you recall you let it fall the time before
                           D7
Annie Over here comes my heart
                                                 G
I'll try again maybe I'll win your love once more

C                                                  G
I just threw my heart to you with so much love inside
A7                                       D7
Won't you play the game with me don't run away and hide
G                          D7
Annie Over here comes my heart
                                                 G
Is this the end our love depends on what you decide
```