Bend It Till It Breaks-John Anderson
Author:Lionel A. Delmore and John David Anderson

```
Am                  C
I'm tired of having all these troubles
Am               C
I think I've had enough
Am                       C                      G
Excuse me for sayin' but baby I'm calling your bluff

Am                          C
There's been to many times too many reasons
Am                  C
To much cryin' out loud
Am                   C                    G
Too much being just another face in the crowd

        Dm                          F
Oh I've heard it before time and time again
    C                               G
You say its the last time but it never ends
    Dm                   F
How much more can this poor heart take
    C                 G
You bend it until it breaks

Am                     C
There's to many cards too many letters
Am                 C
Strangers sending flowers
Am                   C                        G
Too much worry and staying up waiting for hours

Am                          C
It's plain to see you don't care about me
Am                       C
You just spread it all around
Am                       C                           G
I'm tired of being the joke and the talk of the town
