```
G                          D7
They heard the breeze in the trees
        G         C
Singing weird melodies
        D7                      G
And they made that the start of the blues

                        D7
And from a jail came the wail
     G            C
Of a down-hearted frail
        D7                      G
And they played that as part of the blues

       B7
From a whippoorwill out on a hill

They took a new note
                  E7                    A7     D7
Pushed it through a horn till it was worn into a blue note

             G             D7
And then they nursed it they rehearsed it
   G           C
And gave out the news
        D7                       G
That the Southland gave birth to the blues
