Falling In Love-Don Williams
Author:Bob McDill and Wayland Holyfield

```
C
I thought by now I was too smart
              F       G7        C
Thought I was through giving my heart
            Am                  F
It's only a game that tears you apart
           G7
Falling in love

        C
My poor soul was about to mend
               F          G7     C
Honey then you smiled at me and then
          Am           F
Lord help me here I go again
G7         C
Falling in love

              G7 C
Falling in lo-o-ove
           F  G7 C
Falling in lo-o-ove
          Am                F
When'll I learn I bet I get burned
G7         C
Falling in love

Looking back through the bridges I burned
          F           G7     C
Each heartbreak was a page I turned
         Am               F
Never forget the lesson I learned
           G7
Falling in love

       C
Well I was all though until we met
            F    G7        C
Never gonna love again and yet
          Am           F
Funny how soon we all forget
           C
Falling in love

Repeat #3 x2
```