Freeborn Man-Glen Campbell
Author:Keith Allison and Mark Lindsay

C
I was born in southland twenty some odd years ago
C7
I ran away for the first time when I was four years old

F C
I'm a freeborn man my home is on my back
G7 F
I know every inch of highway every foot of
C
Back road every mile of railroad track

I got a gal Cincinnati I got a woman in San Antone
C7
I've always loved the girl next door but any place is home

Repeat #2

Got me a worn out guitar I carry in an old coal sack
C7
I've hocked it bout two hundred times but I always get it back

Repeat #2

You may not like my appearance may not like my song
C7
May not like the way I talk but you'll like me when I'm gone

Repeat #2 x2