Garage Sale Today-George Jones
[3/4 time]

```
C                              F           C
Please feel at home neighbor as you look around
F                 C                                G7
Browse through my treasures they're all good and sound
C                            F         C
A lifetime of memories are now on display
F               C       G7           C
She's gone and left me garage sale today

                                  F          C
A piece of white netting that once was apparel
F             C                   G7
White satin slippers now faded and pale
C                                  F            C
There's a book of pressed roses a bridal bouquet
F             C      G7           C
Handle them gently garage sale today

  F                                  C
A broken down cradle in light baby blue
    F                      C          G7
How well I remember the day it was new
C                           F       C
A laughter of angels our baby at play
F             C       G7           C
Wrap it up quickly garage sale today

                              F           C
Two bottles a nickel and a glass for a dime
F                 C                                G7
The chair cost a dollar and it's just in its prime
C                                   F               C
The old skillet it cost a quarter each picture a dime
F                 C             G7           C
Each treasure so priceless to sell it's a crime

                                        F                 C
There's a stack of used school books grades 1 through 4
F             C                  G7
Broken Crayolas all over the floor
C                             F         C
An old one legged dolly a like new sleigh
F               C         G7           C
Take them all with you garage sale today

  F                                     C
A pair of old pillows from off of the bed
      F                        C              G7
Where we slept together the night we were wed
C                                      F             C
And there's an old leather bible that taught us to pray
F             C          G7           F  C
Now I can't sell them garage sale to-day
```