C                                          C7          F
A long time forgotten are dreams that just fell by the way
    G7                                              C
The good life he promised ain't what she's living today
                                           C7              F
But she never complains of the bad times or bad things he's done Lord
         G7                                                          C
She just talks about the good times they've had and all the good times to come

                                         C7          F
She's a good-hearted woman in love with a good-timing man
    G7                                           C
She loves him in spite of his ways that she don't understand
                                                      C7            F
Through teardrops and laughter they'll pass through this world hand-in-hand
  G7                                         C
A good-hearted woman loving her good timing man

                                            C7          F
He likes the night life the bright lights and good-timing friends
         G7                                          C
When the party's all over she'll welcome him back home again
                                                   C7            F
Lord knows she don't understand him but she does the best that she can
               G7                                          C
'Cause she's a good-hearted woman she loves her good timing man
