C G7                          C
Inside the walls of prison my body may be
       F        G7          C
But my Lord has set my soul free

There's a Greystone chapel here at Folsom
                                 G7
A house of worship in this den of sin
            C
You wouldn't think that God had a place here at Folsom
       F                  G7        C
But He saved the souls of many lost men

Now there's Greystone chapel here at Folsom
                                              G7
Stands a hundred years old made of granite rock
          C
It takes a ring of keys to move here at Folsom
        F                    G7           C
But the door to the House of God is never locked

  G7                          C
Inside the walls of prison my body may be
       F        G7          C
But the Lord has set my soul free

There are men here that don't ever worship
                                                G7
There are men here who scoff at the ones who pray
         C
But I've got down on my knees in that Greystone chapel
      F                   G7              C
And I thank the Lord for helping me each day

Now there's Greystone chapel here at Folsom
                                    G7
It has a touch of God's hand on ever stone
       C
It's a flower of light in a field of darkness
         F             G7                C
And it's giving me the strength to carry on

  G7                          C
Inside the walls of prison my body may be
       F        G7          C
But my Lord has set my soul free
