I'll Be Yours-Faron Young
Author: Jim Odom

```
C
When he stopped sending roses
     F
When your certains are just supposes
        C
When the door to romance closes
        F     G7  C
Darling I'll  be  yours

When bluebirds hush their singing
     F
When your make believe bells stop ringing
When your sweet clinging vine stops clinging
        F     G7  C
Darling I'll  be  yours

F                                                C
I'll be yours although I know your heart is second hand
F                                               C
I'll be true for only you complete my future plans
F                              C
I'll always hold you my heart although you never cared
D7                                 G7
How many lonely nights I'll spend just wishing you were here

C
When other hearts resist you
     F
When you're lonely for lips to kiss you
        C
When you have no one to miss you
        F     G7  C
Darling I'll  be  yours
