I'm A Hit Again-Jim Reeves

```
G         D7                          G
Yes I'm a hit again made it back in your top ten
              D7                          G
Thought for a long long while I'd just gone out o' style
               D7                              G
Folks wondered where I had been now I'm a hit again

                      D7              G
Yes I can see by the chart I made it back in your heart
           D7                         G
I wanna be number one have an award-winning run
                 D7                       G
I'm back in the top ten yes I'm a hit again

                  D7                        G
I hope that it's in the cards for me to win an award
             A7                                D7
And when the counting is through I'll be a standard with you
G         D7                   G
Yes I'm a hit again I'm back in the top ten
         D7                        G
The very latest trend I'm a hit again
