Author:Bill Anderson

```
C                          F
Heart I'm ashamed of you lips I'm ashamed of you
C                                        G7
You've betrayed me and you've made me love him and he's not free
C                          F
Arms I'm ashamed of you aching the way you do
C                                G7              C
I'm ashamed of you but mostly I'm ashamed of me

Eyes you looked right past his wedding band
F                                        C
And all you saw were lips you long to kiss

Fool you talked him into holding hands
    D7                                    G7
And now you've let him tear me up like this

Repeat #1

Mind you'll let him drive me out of you
F                                    C
For you're made up to win his love somehow

Conscience ain't there something you can do
      D7                                  G7
Cause if there is you'd better do it now

Repeat #1
