I'm So Afraid of Losing You Again-Charley Pride
Author: Dallas Frazier and Arthur Leo Owens

```
C                                   F
Sometimes I want to throw my arms around you
       C                                  G7
Then I tremble at the thought of giving in
C                                    F
Because I know how much it cost to love you
       C            G7          C
And I'm so afraid of losing you again

F                                C
Being close to you revives the sorrow
                                          G7
That wakes me up and tells me I can't win
C                                    F
I'd love to wake up in your arms tomorrow
       C            G7          C
But I'm so afraid of losing you again

                                    F
If heaven were to hear my heart's confession
C                                   G7
Wanting you would be my greatest sin
C                                          F
But I'm glad that you're no longer my possession
         C            G7          C
Cause I'm so afraid of losing you again
