I've Got A Right To Cry-Hank Williams Jr.
Author:Joe Liggins

```
D7                  G
I've got a right to cry
                    C
I've got a right to cry
                   D7
All day I sing the blues
                  G
I'm in my lonely shoes

D7                 G
Could you be so unkind
                   C
I nearly lost my mind
                  A7
I wonder if you care
                   D7
My life is a sad affair

            G
My heart is aching and it's breaking
     C
And I don't know what to do
A7                              D7
Sweetheart it's all because of you

                               G
You know you've done done me wrong
                                C
Come on back home where you belong
                   A7
And in this reason why
D7                  G
I've got a right to cry

                                      C
Yeah my heart is aching Lord it's breaking

And I don't know what to do
   A7                                                  D7
Oh sweetheart don't you know it's all because of you

                               G
You know you've done done me wrong
                                       C
Please come on back home where you belong
                   A7
And in this reason why
D7                  G
I've got a right to cry
