If I Could Put Them All Together-George Jones
Author:Even Stevens

```
G                        C
I guess I ran to Rhonda for her sympathy
D7                           C                   G
Julianne does all she can to take your chains off me
                                  C
The next in line came Caroline she has your long black hair
D7                                          C             G
I can close my eyes and make believe that you are lying there

                                            C
If I could put them all together I'd have you
          G                                D7
But that's more than any mortal man can do
G                                  C
So I'm drawn to the neon lights and tortured by the truth
          G             D7                 G
If I could put them all together I'd have you

                                       C
I thought that Maryanne could keep me satisfied
D7                                          C             G
But your memory staring back at me when I look into her eyes
It's hard to be contented with all the rest
D7                                                  C              G
Once you've loved the perfect woman and once you've held the very best

Repeat #2

C          G             D7                 C  G
If I could put them all together I'd have y-ou
