C                              F
Baby you're the only dream I've ever had come true
C                                          G7
There's so much more to reach for thanks to you
C                             F                    Dm
Now I can climb this mountain babe there was a time I'd stop
F                        C           G7                C   C7
If you'll just hold the ladder baby I'll climb to the top

F               G7                        C
If you'll just stand beside me all the way
D7                                G7
I'll do all the things that didn't matter yesterday
    C                                      F           Dm
Hey and I'll be everything this man can be before I stop
F                        C           G7                C   C7
If you'll just hold the ladder baby I'll climb to the top

F                    G7                  C
Things just started changing with your touch
D7                             G7
Yesterday tomorrow just did not mean as much
     C                                    F           Dm
Yeah and I'll be everything this man can be before I stop
F                        C           G7                C   C7
If you'll just hold the ladder baby I'll climb to the top
