```
G                          D7
Who sends me flowers for no reason at all
C             D7           G
Who saves each card I've ever sent
            G7                   C    E7  Am
Who remembers everything about the day  we  met
         C       D7                    G
If you're wonderin who  it's sentimental ol you

                                        D7
Sentimental old you  I love you  just the way you are
                               C
                 D7        G
Sentimental ol' you  I need you  like the night time needs the stars
                   G7                  C    E7        Am  C  Am
You're the kind of dreamer  that dreams big  enough for two
   C                    D7                      G
And whatever you do  don't change  sentimental old you

                        D7
Who cries at the movies thinking I don't see
C             D7                  G
Who laughs the loudest at the old cartoons
                  G7             C    E7   Am
Who complains that Christmas comes way  too  soon
         C        D7                      C
If you're wondering who  it's sentimental old you
