```
C                      F                C
There was a wedding and church bells were ringing
      F                     C      G7
I was there and heard them say  I do
C              F          C
I was proud to see him so happy
    F           C        G7             C
But she's just 21 and my dad he's fifty two

F                   C
Dad's been so alone since mom has been gone
                                 G7
And it hurts me to see him so blue
C               F          C
A man needs the love of a woman
    F           C        G7             C
But she's just 21 and my dad he's fifty two

                       F                     C
After the wedding and church bells stopped ringing
             F           C                   G7
I stayed and prayed that God would see them through
C       F               C
I'm so afraid she might hurt him
    F           C        G7             C
For she's just 21 and my dad he's fifty two
