```
C                                  C7
Still loving you just like before
     F
Only now I love you more
          C     A7         Dm
More every day   more every way
G7          C
Still loving you

                                   C7
Still wanting you more every night
         F
In every dream I hold you tight
            C      A7            Dm
And with the dawn   my heart goes on
G7          C
Still loving you

G7      C                   Am   Dm         G7
Well my heart's been broken now  too long a time
  C                 Am     Dm            G7
I thought it didn't matter much but now I find
C                        F                 D7
Since you have gone from me your love keeps haunting me
      C     A7   Dm   G7 C
And I think I'll lose my mind

                                   C7
Still loving you  and wishing that
         F
Some miracle   would bring you back
          C      A7         Dm
Oh set me free   so I won't be
G7          C    G7           C
Still loving you  still loving you
