```
C
Well I've been waiting ever since eight
F
Guess my baby's got another date
      C         G7        C
Stood up brokenhearted again

I'll bet she's out having a ball
F
Not even thinking of me at all
      C         G7       C
Stood up brokenhearted again

     F                    C
Well I know just what I oughta do
F                   C
I oughta find somebody new
    F                    C
But baby I couldn't forget about you
                  G7        C
Stood up brokenhearted again

Why must I always be the one
Left alone never having any fun
      C         G7        C
Stood up brokenhearted again

Well I guess I'll go on being a fool
F
Sitting around just waiting for you
      C         G7        C
Stood up brokenhearted again

F     C         G7        C
Stood up brokenhearted again
