C
Sleep with your spoon in your pillow
G
Don't be the witch that bends the willow
   A7
No matter how old you grow
D7                          G
Morning may bring Strawberry Snow

                      D7                      G
Little boys and girls make raindrops turn to Lemon
                           D7                    G
Then little boys and girls they turn into men and women
C                                        G
Those that are happy are those that still know
     D7                            G
That morning may bring Strawberry Snow

C
Smile though your heart has no reason
G
Drink everyday that's the season
    A7
Ask little children they know
D7                          G
Morning may bring Strawberry Snow

    A7
Ask little children they know
D7                          G
Morning may bring Strawberry Snow
