Sweet Thang-Jimmy Dean & Dotty West
Author:Nat Stuckey

```
G
I slipped out of the house about sundown
     C                      G
While mama was a washing her hair

And you can bet your bottom dollar

She'll come looking for me
A7                          D7
When she'll find that I'm not there
    G
And if she catches her sweet thang slipping around
 C                           G
I know there'll be the devil to pay
     C                                      G            C
Cause she'll come blowing like a cyclone right through that door
     G           D7          G
And I hear exactly what she'll say

Well has anybody here see sweet thang
       C                        G
I got a notion he'd be headed this way

Cause when my sweet thang's out tomcatting around
A7                          D7
Finds a sandbox like this to play
  G
I wanna warn all you barroom roses
     C                          G
If my sweet thang should happen by
     C                           G               C
You'd better take my advice if you blink more than twice
     G                    D7      G
You'd better have something in your eyes

I gave my baby all my money on payday
      C                          G
Except a little she don't know that I got

Cause there's a little cute waitress down at the corner cafe
A7                               D7
And she seems to like me quite a lot
   G
We were sitting in the back booth just a having a chat
       C                           G
And she believed in every word that I said
    C                       G          C
When that door blew open and mama walked in
       G             D7       G
Yelling loud enough to wake the dead

And she said
