The Latest Shade Of Blue-Connie Smith
Author:Eddy Raven

```
G            D7            G
Just when it starts to get better
               D7           G
Just when your memory might end
C            D7          G
When I say goodbye to the old crowd
    A7                          D7
And I'm finding myself some new friends

G             D7             G
Just when the sun shines the brightest
                 G7          C
And I'm doing the best I can do
           D7      C        G
I think of you and change into
    D7              G
The latest shade of blue

C         D7     G
Color me lonely again
C           D7        G
Sadder than I've ever been
C            D7         C         G
Take off the old me and color the new
    D7              G
The latest shade of blue

                D7                G
Hearts learn to mend when they're broken
                D7         G
Oh but a memory don't ever forget
C          D7        G
Love was a ride on a rainbow
   A7                           D7
Oh but I haven't got over you yet

G            D7         G
Feelings are so hard to handle
                 G7         C
But I'm doing the best I can do
                D7      C        G
Till I think of you and change into
    D7              G
The latest shade of blue

C               D7      C        G
Till I think of you and change into
    D7              G
The latest shade of blue
```