You'll Come Back-Webb Pierce
Author:Billy Barton

```
G                          C
Well you'll be back yeah you'll be back
G                             D7
You'll come running back to me
G                               C
When you're tired of all your other loves
       G             D7      G
You'll come running back to me

                           C
You say you're tired of being held down
G                            D7
You wanna be footloose and free
G                                  C
When your little thing starts a rocking now
       G             D7      G
You'll come running back to me
```

Repeat #1

```
                                   C
You say you're tired of being locked up in love
G                   D7
So baby here's the key
G                   C
Unlock the door and let yourself go
       G             D7      G
You'll come running back to me
```

Repeat #1
