You're From Texas-Bob Wills
Author:Cindy Walker

```
G                    E7
Pardon me stranger I hope there's no danger
       A7
You'll think I'm getting off of my range
        D7             G             E7
Oh but I calculate that you're from my state
   A7                       D7
And though you may think it's strange

 G       E7             A7
I allow as how you're from Texas
                  D7     G
Because the lingo I understand
                       E7            A7
I'll bet my kale that you hail from Texas
                       D7
There's no mistaking the brand

            G                     C
You've got a smile like an acre of sunflowers
    A7                    D7
Your eyes are blue bonnet blue
G               E7                      A7
Shake hands it's grand that you're from Texas
      D7             G
Cause I'm from Texas too
