It happens to a mother when she is giving birth
    C                              G7
Her heart is filled with joy while her body's filled with hurt
    C          C7          F              Dm
She holds the baby close to her despite the pain he caused
C                   G7                 C
When it comes to love you don't count the cost

                        F
It happens to a soldier fighting for his home
C                        G7
Fear wells up inside him and yet he still goes on
C             C7          F              Dm
Even though he knows he may be the next to fall
C                   G7                 C
When it comes to love you don't count the cost

Am                      F             C
You don't count the heartache you don't count the sacrifice
    Am                F              G7
And all that counts is what you feel inside
   F                             C                F
It doesn't really matter what is gained or what is lost
C                       G7                  C
When it comes to love no you don't count the cost

                        F
It happens all around us each and every day
C                                    G7
Someone's giving all they've got for someone else's sake
C           C7           F              Dm
If you ever doubt it just think about the cross
C                   G7                 C
When it comes to love you don't count the cost
