Putting on your makeup I can see the lines you're trying hard to hide
                                                           G
Lines that tell the story of your life with me that seemed to you good times
G7                          C
All I've been to you is a thorn to me you've been a rose
                      G       C   D7                        G
And you keep right on lov-ing me  but why you do I'll never know

                                                             D7
Making yourself pretty for a man who hasn't made your life much fun
                                                          G
Never do you complain and if angels walk on earth then honey you'd be one
    G7                          C
And if you've ever cried you've cried inside where it don't show
                      G       C   D7                        G
And you keep right on lov-ing me  but why you do I'll never know

                                                    D7
I broke every promise not even the small ones could I keep
                                                        G
That's why I keep thinking that you'd be so much better off without me
    G7                        C
And I know if I try to leave you'd even let me go
                       G       C   D7                           G
And you'd keep right on lov-ing me  and why you would  I'll never know
